PUBLIC DISPLAY COPY

The Display Card

A compact card for the car, if the event permits one.

Enter the vehicle name, a brief display note, and an optional credit. Use print preview to check every line, then print at actual size and trim at the corner marks. Finished size 7 × 4½ in.

PROVENAIRE HOUSE

1962 Coachbuilt Grand Tourer

The driver's seat still carries the wear of years on the road. During recommissioning, the workshop repaired the support beneath it and retained the leather you see here.

WORKED CASE / 2 OF 2

The Display and Private Record

A finished display-card example and the note behind it.

Display Copy

The driver’s seat still carries the wear of years on the road. During recommissioning, the workshop repaired the support beneath it and retained the leather you see here. Look for the creasing along the outer bolster.

Private Reference

C003: pre-work image, exterior and cockpit series. C004: invoice, seat support line. C005: owner interview. If asked about factory originality, say what the present evidence establishes and what remains open.

After the Event

The owner saves the display copy, event program, and one photograph of the car as shown. The folio is available for the next event, even if the car remains in the same collection.
